Every effort is made to insure the health and comfort of each dog. However we cannot guarantee the health of any animal.

If animal becomes seriously ill, the owner shall be notified at once in case no particular veterinarian has been designated. If the owner does not inform immediately regarding measure to be taken, or if the state of the animal's health reasonably demands quick action, we reserve the right to call a veterinarian or administer medicine or give other advisable attention, within our discretion and judgment, and such expense, being reasonable in amount, shall be paid by the owner of the animal.

If any charges for boarding, training, medicines, or veterinary services are not paid within 10 days after they are due or if the animal is not called for within 10 days after time for return of animal, the animal will be sold by us publicly, privately or otherwise for the best price available. Notice in writing of such intended sale shall be mailed by registered mail to the owner of such animal at the above address before date of intended sale, no other notice shall be necessary. The animal may be destroyed or given away if no quick sale can be made. All extra charges, such as attorney fees, court charges, collection agency charges, in addition to our charges shall be paid by owner of animal.
